

Donkey saw many special things that night -
a BIG star, angels singing, and shepherds.
And donkey never forgot this special night when Jesus, God's Son, was born.

Joseph lived in Nazareth.
He had to go to Bethlehem
To write his name in the King's register book.
It was the new rule for everyone. Mary went too.

2

That night, baby Jesus, God's Son was born in a stable!
Donkey looked in the manger box of hay
And saw the little baby fast asleep!
"I am glad he has a warm bed," thought Donkey.

The stable was warm and dry. Donkey saw some hay in a manger box to eat!
Joseph said, "We will need a bed for our baby.
This manger box of hay will be just right!"

6

Donkey heard Joseph and Mary say that they had seen an angel. The angel told them that Mary would have a baby boy.
He was the promised Son of God!

3

Joseph and Mary could see the town on top of the hill.

"Hurry, Donkey," Joseph said,
"We need to get to Bethlehem quickly because Mary's baby will be born tonight."

4

Joseph and Mary looked for a place to sleep.

But there was no room anywhere.
In the end a kind inn-keeper said
they could sleep in his stable.
